ABOUT HOPE HILL:

Founded in 2015, Hope Hill is an authentic and exciting church that meets weekly at the Vineyard Theatre (108 E 15th Street) in Union Square, Manhattan, NYC. Our Sunday services gather an amazing crowd for food, music, networking, a thought-provoking lecture, and life-changing discussion. We welcome everyone to join us for the Sunday service at 11:00am and to come early at 10:30am or stay late to network and connect with the Hope Hill Community. Our other midweek and weekend events are fun and diverse, and they include: skydiving trips, house parties, hiking trips, relationship workshops, Bible studies, racial unity and reconciliation seminars, dinner events, community banquets for homeless families, international missions and aid trips, and much more. If you are looking to deepen your faith, wrestle with questions on spirituality, or simply meet great people, this is your place. Come connect with other New Yorkers just like you.
